DATE:	Tuesday, April 15, 2014
TIME:	9:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
LOCATION:	Sacramento Association of REALTORS® 2003 Howe Ave Sacramento, CA 95825
COST:	$15 members, $25 non-members, $10 more at the door, FREE if you join CAMP, Greater Sacramento Chapter

Herman Thordsen Esq. is a speaker on mortgage compliance issues and is a requested speaker at numerous trade groups and industry functions. Through the firm's various publications and appearances, Mr. Thordsen and his staff keep mortgage lenders and brokers aware of changes in Mortgage Financing laws of the various governmental agencies such as the California Department of Real Estate, California Department of Corporations, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), FCC/FTC and now the FRB and its interpretation of Mortgage Loan Originator Compensation. In this session, these are some of the things we will learn about:

- How are you chosen for a BRE audit? How are they conducted and what can cause them?
- What should you do when an auditor or investigator from the BRE contacts you?
- What information does the auditor already have before the contact is made?
- What rights do you have when you are contacted?

Long time industry expert Ginger Bell, Director Business Development & Training, C3 Compliance Solutions will share existing technology compliance solutions. In this session we will share technology solutions available in the market today to help a company efficiently manage and streamline a centralized approach to compliance management. Some of the topics that will be discussed are:

- Centralized administrative management controls
- Archiving and versioning controls
- Content syndication
- Social media monitoring
- Risk management solutions
- Compliant content solutions
